1. IMPORTANT: PROGRAM ON DANGERS OF METH

On April 15, 2008, from 6:30 to 7:00 p.m., nearly every network-affiliated and independent Arizona television station will simultaneously broadcast a shocking and in-depth documentary on the dangers of Crystal Meth entitled Crystal Darkness.

The attached information provides further details regarding this upcoming program. We hope you will pass this information along to others who may be interested in this topic so they can make arrangements to see this powerful broadcast on the life-threatening consequences of using meth.

We also wanted to make you aware that DVDs will be available through the Phoenix Police Department for those who are unable to access the local cable channels. If you are interested in this DVD, please contact Commander Crockett.
Chris Crockett, Commander
Public Affairs Bureau
Phoenix Police Department

4. Diversity Leadership Alliance Workshop – April 24th

Workshop: "Millennial Myths: Overcoming and Moving Forward"

Workshop Leader: Lisa Clayton

This learning session is designed for Team Members and Leaders who want to understand how to be more inclusive in a multi-generational workplace, with a focus on the newest Millennial Generation in the workforce-also known as Generation Y. It addresses each generation's frame of reference, the myths of the Millennial Generation and how we can help ensure that our actions invite everyone to reach their full potential.

Upon completion of this learning session participants will be able to:

1. Identify the current generations represented in the workplace today.
2. Understand the frame of reference for each generation and how generational differences with Millennial Generation lead to decreased productivity.
3. Dispel the myths surrounding Millennials.
4. Identify how they can interrelate with the Millennial Generation to make exchanges more productive.
